

Special Offer £85

A fascinating window on eighteenth-century society in the North of England

The Diary of Thomas Fenwick Esq. of Burrow Hall, Lancashire, and Nunriding, Northumberland, 1774 to 1794

‘The Fenwick diary provides not only a fascinating introduction to the life of provincial England between 1774 and 1794 but is also an important window onto significant changes in English society in those years’ – Professor Jeremy Black, author of Eighteenth-century Britain.

The Diary of Thomas Fenwick, ed. Jennifer Holt (List and Index Society Special Ser., 47–50, 4 vols, 1364 pp., hardback) is available at a special offer rate of £85 until 30 June 2017, from the Society's web site, www.listandindexsociety.org.uk or by filling in and sending this form ...

---

To the Treasurer, List and Index Society (LIS 01),
The National Archives, Kew, Richmond, TW9 4DU, UK

Please supply ____ copies of The Diary of Thomas Fenwick, Volumes I–IV, at the special offer rate of £85 including one year's membership and UK p&p.

Name: _____

Address: _____

_____

_____

Postcode: _____

Email address: _____

_____

Please make cheques payable to 'List and Index Society'.

---

For overseas postage rates and alternative methods of payment, please email us at

listandindexsociety@nationalarchives.gsi.gov.uk

---

The List and Index Society is a non-profit making organization